"If you talk to a man in a language he understands, that goes to his head. If you talk to him in his language, that goes to his heart." -
Nelson Mandela

may we observe
A MOMENT OF SILENCE
for all those who are unemployed
at this moment

Conferring the first Professional Designation onto the SA Register of Career Development Practitioners

Mr Chris Beukes
Chief Executive Officer
South African Career Development Association

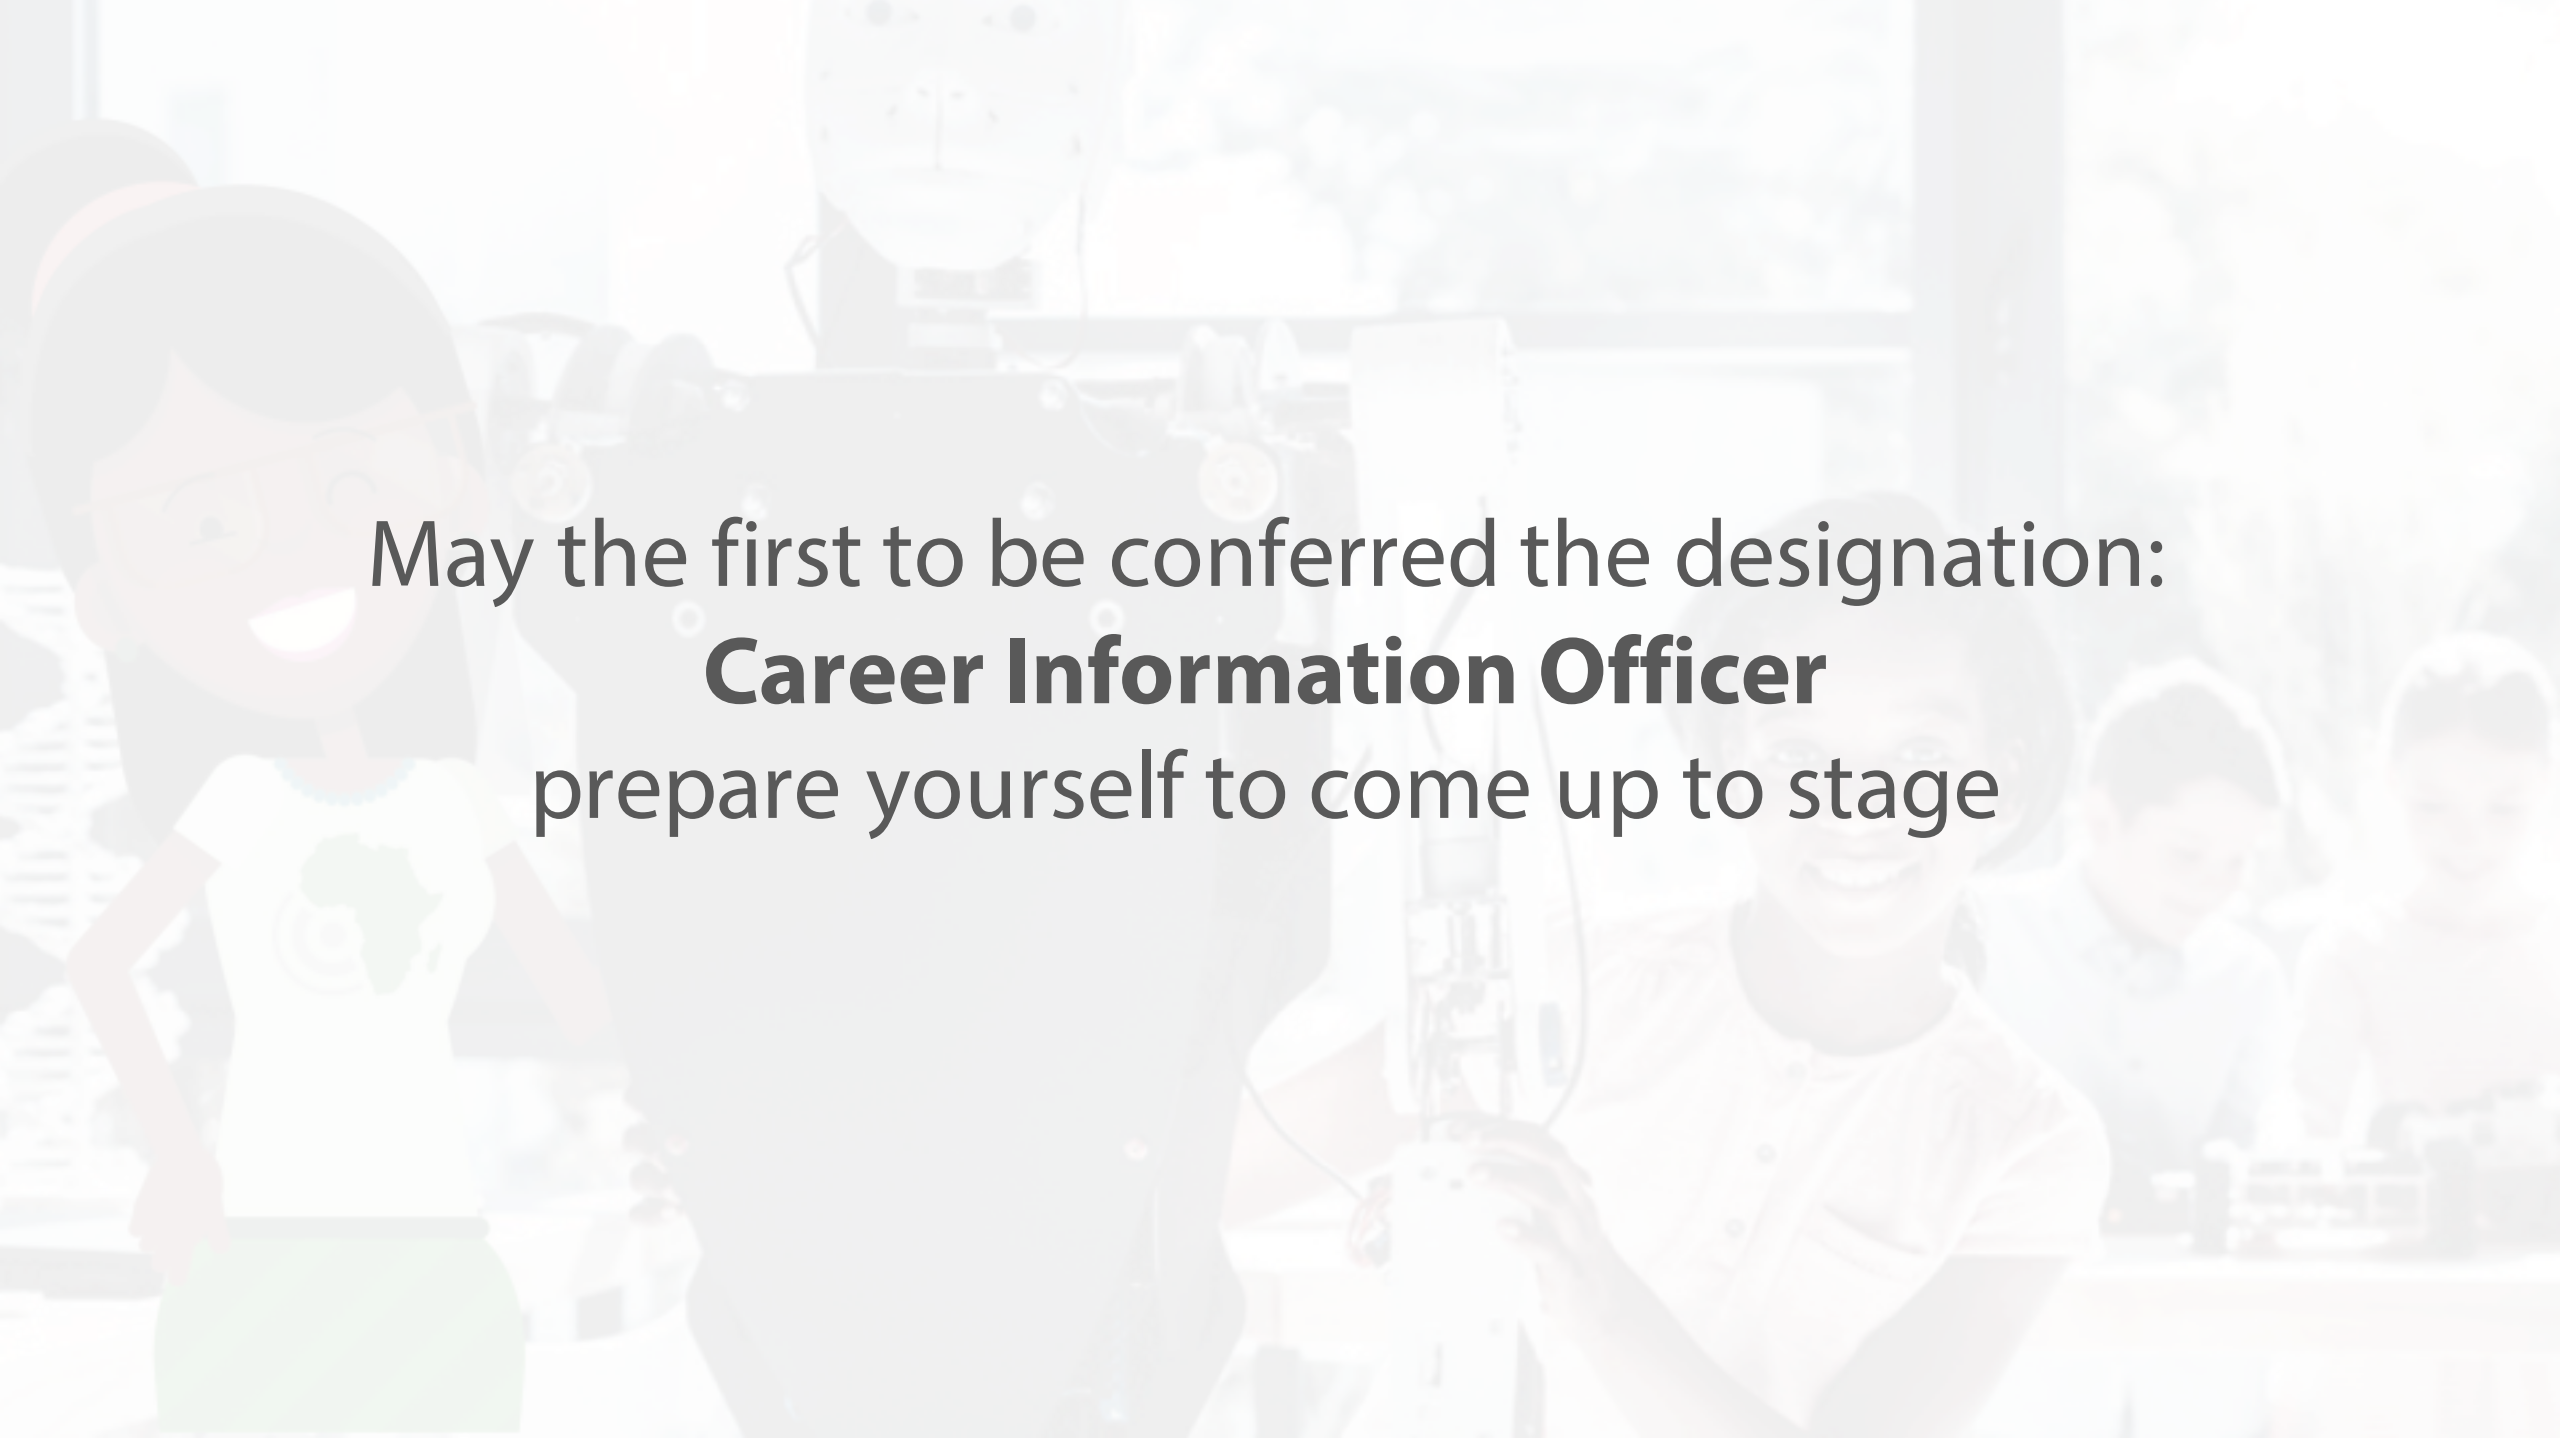

- Today marks the dawn of a new era for career development in our country
- We are celebrating a new Professional Designation, whose sole purpose, is to support the career development of our people
- Ask a person (especially the youth) to tell you about their skills, and you too will see our challenge

- As a collective, we are responsible to ensure a nation of people who are connected to their skills and enabled to put them to work
- The right to decent and meaningful work is a basic human right for all those who are willing and able
- For those being be conferred the first Professional Designation of Career Development Practitioner in South Africa...
- Do not take your responsibility lightly

- We are facing tough times, and we need you to get out, into our communities, and work, like never before
- Seated in this room here today, are the most influential stakeholders in the entire skills pipeline, in South Africa
- We, as a collective, commit to equipping you, as Career Development Practitioners, with Ethics, Access, Quality and Growth
- By coming together to equip Career Development Practitioners, we are coming together to equip our communities and country.

May the first to be conferred the designation:
Career Information Officer
prepare yourself to come up to stage

REGISTRAR

May we stand to give the first Registered Career Development Practitioners in South Africa a round of applause

- Life must not be about trying to stay alive.
- Life must be about finding ways to thrive.
- Through Career Development Practitioners, together with all other parts of our society, we will do just that.

A vision from our President
